

Alex Mendelsohn, Kennebunk, ME.

The lower Mousam River and its miles and miles of tributaries suffer from low dissolved oxygen levels in the impoundments behind the three ancient non-productive dams. They need to be removed! This is a matter of ocean-river ecosystem viability.